Dear Judge Rakoff:

Specifically, in response to request (a) of the defendant's letter, dated May 30, 2025, the Government states the following: without confirming or denying that a prudential search review was done, if one was done, to the extent there were discoverable communications between the defendant and Oleg Deripaska, again without confirming or denying that there were any communications, the Government either produced them to the defense or engaged in litigation pursuant to Classified Information Procedures Act.

Respectfully submitted,
